

Potential HOT Job Opportunities

Multiple Mechanical / Electrical Manufacturing Engineers and NC Programmers are required for 1st, or split shift (1st to 2nd, flexible hours) to complete tasks as related to AeroStructures in support of aircraft build, tooling, liaison, and planning.

Primary responsibilities include:

- Manufacturing Engineering support of aircraft build and designs by providing producibility review, work instruction planning, developing tooling and manufacturing plans, and manufacturing implementation and support of airframe installation and modifications.
- The candidate will review, sign off, create, and implement PCAS for EC changes, issue SAP notifications to create new tooling, and perform process validations.
- The candidate will pro-actively coordinate with Design Engineering and other disciplines and actively engage in continuous quality improvement using other ACE tools.

The candidate must be flexible and highly motivated with a proven technical ability and business judgment with the ability to work on multiple programs.

Good communication skills are required. 5+ years of Manufacturing Engineering exp preferred.

The candidate must be proficient in all processes associated with Manufacturing Engineering. Proficiency in Solumina, Matrix, Microsoft Programs, CATIA, CADRA, Right Hemisphere, and SAP is mandatory.

Contract is for minimum of 12 months. Locations are in Stratford, CT, WPB, FL and Troy, AL.

RCMT offers a very competitive benefit and salary package. Rotary wing experience highly preferred.

Please send resume and contact info to: support.aerospace@rcmt.com